

3626

INTERNATIONAL CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

"The focus is on reading newspaper articles and discussions relating to current events"

FINS3626

This course takes a broad view of on the operations and establishment of organisations. It is concerned with 'how corporations are managed'. It emphasises regulatory and formal arrangements such as auditors and the appointment of directors. The course explores literature on corporate governance in conjunction with current governance arrangements for firms. Students will also analyse how participants in the stock market value firms with different corporate governance structures.

Prerequisites: ACCT1511 and FINS1613

Structure of the course:

Semester 1:

5% MCQ class quizzes

25% Class Test

20% Group Assignment

50% Final Exam

Semester 2:

N/A

* Disclaimer: Semester 2 Assessment details may be subject to change

STUDENT REVIEW

"No calculations. A lot of theory and case studies to read and understand"

"Multiple choice questions require you to choose the best answer, but they are a challenging"

"Interesting to learn about how countries have different ways of running companies"

WHEN IS IT OFFERED

1

This course is only offered in Semester 1 2017. For students interested in undertaking this course, ensure prerequisite courses are completed beforehand.

2